CHINOOK’S PRAIRIE LASSIE

I have read with interest the articles in the Walking Horse News on old time bloodlines. I thought you might be interested in the breeding of an old mare I own. I bought her when she was a two-year-old and rode her for many years doing ranch work and pleasure riding. She was a real pleasure to ride and enjoyed chasing cattle.

My grandson learned to ride on her when she was eighteen.

She is twenty-six now and reasonably sound, but has been retired for several years.

Above is a picture of us on a trail ride near Fort Walsh in the Cypress Hills a few years ago.

I enjoy the Walking Horse News and appreciate the effort you put into it.
