Director Nominations

Nominations for a provincial director for Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta were called for in November.

There were no nominations received for MB or SK. There was only one nomination, Marjorie Lacy, for Alberta. Therefore she will serve as AB director for the next three years.

'A HORSE TO REMEMBER'

The Canadian Registry's website has 4 new stories. Karla Hansen, Allanna Jackson, Grace Larson & Shellie Pacovsky have all submitted stories of their unforgettable horses. See page 2.

Go to the website, read the stories, see the photos - and marvel at the horse/human bond.

Do you have a story too?

RESERVE LABOUR DAY WEEKEND!

Come join us in

"THE CANADIAN" EVENT – Enjoy - Encourage - Evaluate

CRTWH is offering Canadian TWH owners a new type of Horse Event – a fun and innovative approach to horse activities. This event would include in hand and under saddle classes; evaluative classes; fun classes; and classes that are not typically seen as part of a traditional Walking Horse show.

The variety of classes offered will introduce both new and experienced TWH owners to activities and competition that is beyond the usual traditions. We hope the evaluative aspect of some classes will encourage participants to explore new interests

Reserve September 1, 2 & 3 and join us at the Almond Arena near Ponoka, AB for an all new TWH Event. See you there!

KARLA'S BLAZE OF LIGHTNING #2260

by Karla Hansen

“He was just one of those Excellent horses! Many years of companionship went by, and he never tried to buck Alexandra off or do anything undesirable. I was always confident that he would never hurt her, give her any bad advice or tell her any lies. A trustworthy, awesome horse he was.”

SACIA'S PRIDE 745076 by Allanna Jackson

“Sacia’s Pride was so eager to please she sometimes tried too hard. Her manners were perfect. She was supremely gentle, very patient, honest, quiet, loyal, consistent, reliable, obedient, forgiving, tolerant, trusting and trustworthy. Externally she was just a small, very plain, chestnut mare but Sassy’s heart and character were valuable beyond price.”

SILVERTIP-RICKEY #473752

by Grace Larson

“I rode Rickey bareback most of the time. I just fit with him. We’d run horses in and he could turn so quickly; he knew before I did what the horse or cow was going to do. He was very sure footed. I rode him up and down hills and never even had him stumble. I have ridden many horses in my lifetime but none will ever equal Silvertip-Rickey.”

SLUSH CREEKS JUBAL S CRTWH 3582 / TWHBEA 917961

by Shellie Pacovsky

“Jubal was such a potent sire that his size, exceptional conformation, beautiful gaits and wonderful disposition are still passing down to his progeny and to several generations down the line.”

“In the beginning I never knew what an exceptional stallion he was. It was only as the years passed that I came to realize how very fortunate I was to have loved this horse and known that he loved me back.”

Go to crtwh.ca / A Horse to Remember for the complete stories.
