The CRTWH 'SHOW AND SHINE' Photography Contest

This idea for this facebook contest was conceived by myself, Windi, as a way to encourage folks to photograph their horses and their people, doing what they love to do. It has been successful in that there were many wonderful submissions.

The CRTWH board members approved the idea and it was decided that the event would honour the late Jo Kingsland who many of us remember. Jo had a love for photographing our Tennessee Walkers and was often in attendance at shows and events to take pictures and subsequently to share her work.

The Board of Directors then unanimously decided to approach Jo-Anne McDonald to see if she would agree to selecting the winners in each of the album categories. Jo-Anne has been photographing horses for decades and much of her work has been featured in print over the years. Happily she agreed.

This is from Jo-Anne:

"I like a clean and balanced photograph. That is to say, the subject should be important enough that there are no elements to detract from the overall appearance. While selecting the top photo in each category I looked for evidence of care taken regarding clarity, grooming, stance, and interaction. There were many beautiful photographs and I found it challenging to select only one per album. I was honoured to have been chosen for this task. Thank you."

In this day and age when we find it expensive to get together in person, the Show and Shine was another way for us to be connected. The contest may be repeated another year, perhaps in a different form, and possibly with a longer time period.

A big THANK YOU to all of those photographers who submitted pictures. And thank you for agreeing to let CRTWH use the photographs in Walking Horse News. (No one indicated otherwise as stated in the contest rules) We hope you enjoy the photos as they are presented. Prizes have been selected and arrangements have been made to have them mailed out or dropped off in the next weeks.
